

Privacy Notice

How we use information

Welcome to Great Abington Primary School Parent Teacher Friends Association (Great Abington PTFA) privacy notice.

Great Abington PTFA respects your privacy and is committed to protecting personal data. This privacy notice will inform you as to how we look after personal data provided to Great Abington PTFA and tell you about your privacy rights and how the law protects you.

Please also use the Glossary to understand the meaning of some of the terms used in this privacy notice.

1. PURPOSE OF THIS PRIVACY NOTICE

This privacy notice aims to give you information on how we collect and processes your personal data.

It is important that you read this privacy notice together with any other privacy notice or fair processing notice we may provide on specific occasions when we are collecting or processing personal data about you so that you are fully aware of how and why we are using your data. This privacy notice supplements the other notices and is not intended to override them.

CONTROLLER

Great Abington PTFA is the controller and responsible for your personal data (also referred to as “we”, “us” or “our” in this privacy notice).

If you have any questions about this, please contact us using the details set out below.

PLEASE KEEP US UPDATED ABOUT YOUR DETAILS

It is important that the personal data we hold about you is accurate and current.

Please keep us informed if your personal data changes during your relationship with us.

2. THE DATA WE COLLECT

Personal data, or personal information, means any information about an individual from which that person can be identified.

We may collect, use, store and transfer different kinds of personal data about you, as follows:

Name, address and telephone number,
Electronic contact details e.g. email address and mobile telephone number
Your preferences in receiving marketing from us and your communication preferences
Your emergency contact details
Information about your medical history

Where necessary we may also collect information about criminal convictions and offences.

IF YOU FAIL TO PROVIDE PERSONAL DATA

Where we need to collect personal data by law, or under the terms of a contract we have with you and you fail to provide that data when requested, we may not be able to perform the contract we have or are trying to enter into with you. In this case, we may have to cancel our service you have with us but we will notify you if this is the case at the time.

3. HOW IS YOUR PERSONAL DATA COLLECTED?

We use different methods to collect data from and about you including through:

- Direct interactions. You may give us your identity, contact and financial data by filling in forms or by corresponding with us by post, phone, email or otherwise. This includes personal data you provide when you:
 - completion of our application form/pack
 - contact us through post, email or phone;
 - request marketing to be sent to you;
 - give us some feedback.
- Third parties or publicly available sources. We may receive personal data about you from various third parties and public sources as set out below:
 - (a) analytics providers such as Google based outside the EU;
 - (b) advertising networks based inside the EU;
 - (c) search information providers based inside the EU.
- Contact, financial and transaction data from providers of technical, payment and delivery services;
- Identity and contact data from publicly available sources such as Companies House and the Electoral Register based inside the EU.

4. HOW AND WHY WE USE YOUR PERSONAL DATA

We will only use your personal data when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we will use your personal data in the following circumstances:

- Where we need to perform the contract we are about to enter into or have entered into with you.
- Where it is necessary for our legitimate interests or those of a third party.
- Where we need to comply with a legal or regulatory obligation.
- Where you have given consent.

A legitimate interest is when we have a business or commercial reason to use your information, so long as this is not overridden by your own rights and interests.

We may process personal data for more than one lawful ground depending on the specific purpose for which we are using your data. Please see below if you need details about the specific legal ground we are relying on to process your personal data where more than one ground has been set out in the table below.

The table below explains what we use (process) your personal data and our reasons for doing so:

What we use your personal data for	Our reasons

The above table does not apply to special category personal data. We will only process special category personal data (as defined under article 9 GDPR) if one of the grounds under article 9(2) applies, which includes:

- obtaining your explicit consent;
- where necessary to protect your vital interests;
- processing is necessary for the establishment or defence of legal claims;
- processing is necessary to comply with legal obligations.

Medical/health information provided to Great Abington PTFA is in order to keep you safe and therefore obtained and processed in the vital interests of you and/or to comply with legal obligations.

MARKETING

We strive to provide you with choices regarding certain personal data uses, particularly around marketing and advertising.

You have the right to withdraw consent to marketing at any time by unsubscribing or updating your preferences using the opt-out link included on all of our marketing emails or by contacting us on Abington10k@gmail.com

You can ask us to stop sending you marketing messages contacting us at any time on on Abington10k@gmail.com

Where you opt out of receiving these marketing messages, this will not apply to personal data provided to us as a result of a product/service purchase, product/service experience or other transactions.

CHANGE OF PURPOSE

We will only use your personal data for the purposes for which we collected it, unless we reasonably consider that we need to use it for another reason and that reason is compatible with the original purpose. If you wish to get an explanation as to how the processing for the new purpose is compatible with the original purpose, please contact us.

If we need to use your personal data for an unrelated purpose, we will notify you and we will explain the legal basis which allows us to do so.

Please note that we may process your personal data without your knowledge or consent, in compliance with the above rules, where this is required or permitted by law.

5. DISCLOSURES OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA

We may have to share personal data with the parties set out below for the purposes set out in the table in paragraph 4 above.

- to comply with legal and regulatory obligations
- Third party consultants, contractors or other service providers – including but not limited to: I.T support and software providers.
- Governing bodies or affiliated organisations for the purpose of insurance, licenses and/or publishing results
- BMR Granta Park PropCo Limited, Granta Park JCo 1 Limited, BMR LLC, BioMed Realty, L.P. and BioMed Realty Trust, Inc and TWI Ltd.

We require all third parties who process on our behalf to respect the security of your personal data and to treat it in accordance with the law. We do not allow our third-party service providers who process data on our behalf to use your personal data for their own purposes and only permit them to process your personal data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

6. DATA SECURITY

We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your personal data from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed. In addition, we limit access to your personal data to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need to know. They will only process your personal data on our instructions and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected personal data breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a breach where we are legally required to do so.

Please be aware that communications over the internet, including via email, are not secure unless they have been encrypted.

7. HOW LONG WILL YOU USE THE PERSONAL DATA FOR?

We will only retain personal data for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting, insurance valuation or reporting requirements.

To determine the appropriate retention period for personal data, we consider the amount, nature, and sensitivity of the personal data, the potential risk of harm from unauthorised use or disclosure of your personal data, the purposes for which we process your personal data and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and the applicable legal requirements.

Details of retention periods for different aspects of your personal data are available upon request from us.

8. LEGAL RIGHTS

Under certain circumstances, you have rights under data protection laws in relation to your personal data (see also our glossary, below).

If you wish to exercise any of the rights set out above, please contact Ian Sainsbury.

You will not have to pay a fee to access your personal data (or to exercise any of the other rights). However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your request is clearly unfounded, repetitive or excessive. Alternatively, we may refuse to comply with your request in these circumstances.

We may need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access your personal data (or to exercise any of your other rights). This is a security measure to ensure that personal data is not disclosed to any person who has no right to receive it. We may also contact you to ask you for further information in relation to your request to speed up our response.

We try to respond to all legitimate requests within 28 days. Occasionally it may take us longer than a month if your request is particularly complex or you have made a number of requests. In this case, we will notify you and keep you updated.

9. GLOSSARY

LAWFUL BASIS

Legitimate Interest means the interest of our business in conducting and managing our business to enable us to give you the best service/product and the best and most secure experience. We make sure we consider and balance any potential impact on you (both positive and negative) and your rights before we process your personal data for our legitimate interests. We do not use your personal data for activities where our interests are overridden by the impact on you (unless we have your consent or are otherwise required or permitted to by law). You can obtain further information about how we assess our legitimate interests against any potential impact on you in respect of specific activities by contacting us.

Performance of Contract means processing your data where it is necessary for the performance of a contract to which you are a party or to take steps at your request before entering into such a contract.

Comply with a legal or regulatory obligation means processing your personal data where it is necessary for compliance with a legal or regulatory obligation that we are subject to.

YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS

You have the right to:

Request access to your personal data (commonly known as a “data subject access request”). This enables you to receive a copy of the personal data we hold about you and to check that we are lawfully processing it.

Request correction of the personal data that we hold about you. This enables you to have any incomplete or inaccurate data we hold about you corrected, though we may need to verify the accuracy of the new data you provide to us.

Request erasure of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal data where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask us to delete or remove your personal data where you have successfully exercised your right to object to processing (see below), where we may have processed your information unlawfully or where we are required to erase your personal data to comply with local law. Note, however, that we may not always be able to comply with your request of erasure for specific legal reasons which will be notified to you, if applicable, at the time of your request.

Object to processing of your personal data where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground as you feel it impacts on your fundamental rights and freedoms. You also have the right to object where we are processing your personal data for direct marketing purposes. In some cases, we may demonstrate that we have compelling legitimate grounds to process your information which override your rights and freedoms.

Request restriction of processing of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of your personal data in the following scenarios: (a) if you want us to establish the data's accuracy; (b) where our use of the data is unlawful but you do not want us to erase it; (c) where you need us to hold the data even if we no longer require it as you need it to establish, exercise or defend legal claims; or (d) you have objected to our use of your data but we need to verify whether we have overriding legitimate grounds to use it.

Request the transfer of your personal data to you or to a third party. We will provide to you, or a third party you have chosen, your personal data in a structured, commonly used, machine-readable format. Note that this right only applies to automated information which you initially provided consent for us to use or where we used the information to perform a contract with you.

Withdraw consent at any time where we are relying on consent to process your personal data. However, this will not affect the lawfulness of any processing carried out before you withdraw your consent. If you withdraw your consent, we may not be able to provide certain products or services to you. We will advise you if this is the case at the time you withdraw your consent.
